

Fairfield County Foundation

2010 SCHOLARSHIP INFORMATION

The Fairfield County Foundation invites you to apply for scholarships for the coming academic year. Scholarship applications must be received by the deadline date.

Please check each scholarship as deadline dates are different.

Complete answers to every question.

If the question does not apply to you or your situation write not applicable or N/A as appropriate.

Type or fill out the application in ink (PRINT). Do not write in pencil.

We will not accept late applications or applications by fax or e-mail.

Do not send applications in plastic folders or use staples.

Detach this cover letter before submitting your application.

Send application and all required attachments together.

We will not accept anything mailed separately or after the deadline date.

Our scholarships are based on field of study, merit, financial need and community involvement. Decisions are final and will be announced in late July. Awards will only be paid to the schools with a fee bill showing a balance due, not to individuals or bookstores.

Scholarships are for tuition only and accredited schools.

Eligibility Criteria

- SAR Form (to establish financial need): All applicants must complete the FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid) and submit a copy of the print summary of your Student Aid Report (SAR). A print summary includes the following: EFC (estimated family contribution), adjusted gross income, school year, name & social security number of applicant. FAFSA application can be found at www.fafsa.ed.gov.

We recommend that you file the FAFSA by February 15th so you will have the SAR in time to submit with your scholarship application.

- Every scholarship is different. Please check the list of available scholarships to make sure that you meet the criteria and different requirements of the scholarship(s) which you are applying and the deadline dates.
- The Fairfield County Foundation requires an application form for each scholarship you are applying and each application must clearly identify the scholarship. Make sure that you read the required attachments for each scholarship; certain scholarships require additional information and have different deadline dates.

Late and incomplete applications will not be considered

Make a copy to keep for your records.

Questions Please call: (740) 654-8451 or e-mail: mfarrow@fairfieldcountyfoundation.org

GRANT MUNRO SCHOLARSHIP TRUST

Mr. Grant Munro willed his estate to fund medical and ministerial scholarships for graduates of high schools within the boundaries of Fairfield County. Surprisingly, he rarely if ever visited a doctor or went to church.

Grant Munro was a Vice President of sales for Anchor Hocking. An astute investor, his hobby was the stock market. This scholarship is administered by National City Bank as Trustee who has chosen to affiliate with the Fairfield County Foundation for the purposes of promoting the scholarship program within the Fairfield County area. Only students who have graduated high school after 1995 will be considered.

Medical scholarships are restricted to certain areas of medicine. Please see attached listing or call (740) 654-8451 for a Listing of Accepted Medical Titles that you may pursue under the Grant Munro Scholarship Trust.

Recipients must have a minimum GPA of 3.5, if pursuing a degree in a field of medicine leading to the title "Doctor" or for those pursuing a degree in Pharmacy (please see Listing of Accepted Medical Titles). If you are pursuing a degree in a field of medicine leading to the title "Doctor" or pursuing the Doctor of Pharmacy degree, you will be considered for a scholarship at the undergraduate level only if you are within five years of obtaining your doctorate. For example, if you are pursuing a pre-medicine degree, you will be considered for a scholarship only if you are entering your senior year. Medical students should include their MCAT score on their application. Medical students awarded scholarship funds for their first year of medical school do not need to complete the Scholarship Application for the second year of medical school or beyond. You will be contacted by the scholarship trustee regarding reapplication procedures.

A minimum GPA of 3.0 is required in the pursuit of all other degrees in the field of medicine.

If you are seeking a scholarship for ministry/religious studies, you also will need to submit either a statement of certification from a sponsoring judicatory or a statement from your local Church governing body and pastor. A minimum GPA of 3.0 is required for ministry/religious studies.

Please submit the official cost of attendance figures for your school, either on letterhead or a website screen print.

If you have not attained the age of 24 and you are not claimed as a dependent on the federal income tax return of either parent, you will not be able to obtain a FAFSA Student Aid Report. In this case, you will need to provide the date you became independent, and submit copies of your federal income tax returns since that date.

If you have a bachelor's degree and are working on a degree beyond a bachelor's degree your EFC number will read 000. You will then need to include copies of your federal income tax returns for the last two years.

Recipients must file an application each year (medical students see above) in order to be considered for a scholarship for the next year. A scholarship award for one academic year is no guarantee of scholarship awards in succeeding years. Recipients are restricted to a maximum of five years of funding.
