

The Andrew “Drew” Townsend-Engle Memorial Scholarship

“ atque in perpetuum, frāter, avē atque valē. ”

“ and forever, brother, hail and farewell. ”

Drew Townsend, as well as performing well academically, was a friend, brother, and son who was passionate about many things and people in his life. In this application, it is up to you to express who and what you love in your life. The purpose of this scholarship is to remember a bright light that we have unfortunately lost far too soon.

This is not a brag sheet. This is a way for the panel of evaluators to find, in you, a glimpse of the passion and love that Drew Townsend once gave to everything and everyone around him.

Everything that is written in this application is confidential. Write whatever you feel is needed to illuminate what best describes you.

Use this application and Drew’s story to understand that you are loved and that there is a reason you are here – it is up to you to live your life and determine what that reason is. Just as the case with Drew, the world is a much better place with you in it.
